

Thank you for your enthusiastic participation and great support to “2018
廉政阿 Go 狗 · 猜謎 Let’s 狗”.

To strengthen the notion of moral integrity and ethics upon the general public and provide choices of experience and festive ambiance other than lantern-watching and tangyuan-eating, Department of Government Ethics Taipei City Government has been the host for the event of online quiz and riddles festival combing the concept of government ethics since 1997, inviting members of our society to join us for brainstorming as well as obtaining knowledge about our proceeding of the ultimate pursuit, building an incorrupt government.

This year, as the online riddled event commenced, merging the concept of anti-corruption actions taken by the public, supporting and cooperating our course of action as well as promoting the ideology of “zero-tolerance towards corruption”, at the end. 100,000 responses and 97% public recognition was acquired.

We have publicly drawn 131 lucky winners on 16 March, 2018. For the list of winners, please go to the official website <http://163.29.157.79/2018lantern/index.asp> or our homepage. Winners will also be notified via email.