

The Clean Government Committee Pays Great Attention on the execution of the Taipei Dome, especially on safety issues.

Publishing authority: Department of Government Ethics

Contact person: Jau Hung Lin Vice Director

Contact number: 1999#7768

Host by the Mayor Ko wen je, Taipei City Government held the 21st meeting of the Clean Government Committee, in the meeting, Department of Urban Development gave brief of the ongoing execution of the Taipei Dome, the Committee questioned the situation on reviewing the development of the Dome, as well as the public safety infrastructures, and answered by the Department of Urban Development and the Preparatory Office, and the resolution would be revealed on the Taipei Dome websites.

Sewerage System Office, Public Works Department gave brief of their policy on improving ethics of the office, concerning about the recent event of the staff suspected to taken bribe. The City Government also conducts an evaluation of risks on similar departments, hoping to eliminate all potential risks of ethic crimes.

In the meeting, The Department of Government Ethics demonstrates the Project Audit reports from 2016 to 2018, and the meeting decides all Taipei City Government audits should be fully on-line, to remove the risk of information gap.