

The lucky draw list of "2019 Fighting Corruption in the Auspicious Year-of-Pig "-the Lantern Festival Online Riddle is announced.

Thank you for your participation!

In order to protect the publicity of food safety , The Department of Government Ethics, Taipei City Government, combined the award-winning work of 2018 Administrative Transparency Awards—"Drugs and Cosmetics Network Mapping iMAP" by the Department of Health with a series of online prize-winning riddles regarding integrity and food-safety for the Lantern festival. And the organizer sincerely invited the citizens to participate and solve the riddles!

During the event, the online riddle activities took the public by storm, and received recognition by above 98 percent of the public who joined the activities . It not only conveyed the conception of integrity through entertaining, but also encouraged the public to participate in the anti-corruption acts , shaping zero tolerance for corruption.

The Department of Government Ethics, Taipei City Government had already drawn two hundred eighteen lucky winners on March 18, 2019. The lucky draw list was announced on the official website (<https://lanternfestivalriddles.org.tw/2019/index.asp>) ,and the Department of Government Ethics, Taipei City Government. Besides , the organizer would email every winner the detailed information.
