

Legal Communication Submission

In order to combine the strength and resources of volunteers, continuously improving the voluntary service, there was an “Integrity Volunteer Visit and Interact Activity” on May 9th, 2019, held by Department of Government Ethics Taipei City Government and its Director, Shen Feng-Liang.

Shen and the Taipei integrity volunteer team went to visit the Institute of Yilan County History, had conversation with the Yilan (integrity volunteer) team. The head magistrate of Yilan, Lin Zi-Miao came to join, also gave a speech. Two integrity volunteer teams not only shared how to deliver the concept of anti-corruption to public, but also reached the consensus on zero tolerance for corruption, visited the "2019 Yilan Green Expo" experiencing sustainable living. This activity went successfully, hope by promoting interaction of volunteer continuously supporting construction of integrity of government.