

"Treasury Hunt at the Year of Rats 2020, Raise your Hand When You See the Mascot" Online Riddle! The Taipei City Government Department of Ethics Invites You to Play.

- Issued by: Taipei City Government Department of Ethics
  - Liaison Officer: Dai Shi Ch
  - Contact Information: (02)2728-7761

“Treasure Hunt at the Year of Rats 2020, Raise your Hand when you see the Mascot” online riddle, the activity hosted by Taipei City Government Department of Ethics, is introducing the general public to the world of ethical governance through online riddles of the lantern festival, with an opportunity to win the prize. The event spans from January 24 to February 24, 2020. One answers 3 riddles correctly to complete a streamline can participate the lucky draw and wins the opportunity to take home prizes such as LG wireless vacuum cleaners, PHILIPS air fryers, AirPods, soap gift boxes, and gift certificate, as well as a special prize of $10,000-worth convenience store vouchers! Visit the official website of the event at <https://lanternfestivalriddles.org.tw/2020/index.asp> or to the homepage of the Department of Ethics, to test your knowledge and fortune.

In order to demonstrate and highlight the importance and resolution of protecting whistleblowers, the “Taipei City Government Whistleblower Protection direction” was introduced and put into practice last year (2019), with education animation for minors “the ethics baby’s alliance, raise your hand when you see the mascot” online riddle, spreading the knowledge of ethical governance through playing games, said by The Director of the Taipei City Government Department of Ethics, Shen Fengliang.

Director Shen also said, to provide an alternative option for the general public to the festive ambiance during the season of new year holidays besides visiting the lantern festival and eating tangyuans, a traditional Chinese food eaten during lantern festival with families, hoping through elaborately designed riddles, the participants can enjoy the entertainment of riddles as well as learning the basic knowledge of ethics governance, the pertinent strategies and actions taken to counter corruption. Everyone is welcome, to building a society of zero-tolerance towards corruption.