

Subject: Taipei City Traffic Adjudication Office accepts fine payments for traffic violations by credit card and mobile payment at the counter.

Content: Taipei City Traffic Adjudication Office not only accepts traffic ticket payment with cash at the counter, but the payment can also be made by credit card and mobile payment. One of the counters in the office has been accepting payments using credit cards or via mobile payment beginning since March of 2018. This service is now available at all counters in the office since June of 2019. Please choose the most convenient payment method based on your individual needs.