

Attachment 1: Information on Major Shopping Districts for Taipei Lunar New Year Festival

Name	Features and Highlights	Time
Dihua Street Shopping District	Rituals of Reunion Dinners on Chinese New Year The origin of Taipei Lunar New Year Festival. It was once an important distribution center for Traditional Chinese Medicinal herbs, tea leaves, fabrics, and general merchandise, and later developed into a New Year’s Shopping Street where many people stroll and purchase goods before the Chinese New Year.	01/6(Fri)- 01/20(Fri)
Rongbin Market	Rituals of Reunion Dinners on Chinese New Year The market is famous for its fresh fish, fresh produce, dried goods, and cooked food. Rongbin Market combines the advantages of traditional markets and supermarkets, which has earned it the moniker “Kitchen of Star-Rated Hotels”.	01/14(Sat)- 01/21(Sat)
Taipei City Mall	Out with the Old, In with the New on Chinese New Year A collection of brand name apparels, consumer electronics, video games, fun capsule toys, and anime goods to meet the different needs of couples shopping and having fun.	From now until 02/19(Sun)
Taipei Station Wholesale Market District	Out with the Old, In with the New on Chinese New Year Latest fashion apparels and accessories, daily merchandise, DIY craft materials wholesale and retail, is a good place for craft lovers to dig up treasures.	From now until 01/20(Fri)
Huayin Street Taipei Main Station Shopping District	Out with the Old, In with the New on Chinese New Year Apparels, leather goods, beauty cosmetics, footwear and sundries are all available for couples to visit, shop, and experience the fun of handcrafting.	From now until 01/20(Fri)
Yuanling Street Shopping District	Out with the Old, In with the New on Chinese New Year Classic handmade leather shoes are the specialty of Yuanling Street Shopping District. The exquisite workmanship and quality are the best fashion statements.	01/11(Wed)- 01/20(Fri)
Si Ping Sun Shopping District	Out with the Old, In with the New on Chinese New Year Mainly offers apparels for OL working professionals, jewelry accessories, and sundries. Also known as “Women’s Street”, Siping Sunshine Shopping District is the best place to visit with your partner before Lunar New Year to buy new clothes and have a good time.	From now until 02/28(Tue)

Name	Features and Highlights	Time
Dongmen Yongkang Shopping District	Out with the Old, In with the New on Chinese New Year The shopping district is home to many Taiwanese snacks and restaurants, as well as many exotic restaurants, unique cafes, and small boutiques for couples to visit and have fun.	01/06(Fri)- 01/20(Fri)
Bangka Night Market	Head Out and Try Amazing Eats During Chinese New Year The night market is filled with time-honored food stores, where you can taste traditional snacks, explore the historical town of Bangka with your taste buds, and visit the Longshan Temple, with its many devout followers. The area is also famous for its wholesale garments, which can satisfy all kinds of fashion styles.	01/15(Sun)- 02/12(Sun)
Ningxia Night Market	Head Out and Try Amazing Eats During Chinese New Year Known as the “Stomach of Taipei “, Ningxia Night Market has many more-than-50-year-old food stands offering Taiwan’s most iconic culinary delights. The night market is not only beloved by locals, but is also a hotspot for international visitors. Come visit and enjoy the essence of Taiwan’s food culture.	01/21(Sat)- 02/10(Fri)