

“Try to be calm”

under sexual offense accident

1. Keep calm. Try to delay, persuade and ease up the offender's emotion (you can use excuses as you are sick or in period) to stop the offending.
2. Not to irritate the offender, keep your life safe is the golden rule. Finding a chance to get away or ask help to a safe people.
3. In order to get away, hand over the valuables which you have to the offender if necessary.
4. Shouting out “ There is a Fire! ” is getting more attention than “ Help! ”
5. Try to use any tool on hand (such as send a text message to a friend or your family , call 110 to keep the phone on for the police to trace you) to save yourself.

How to ask for help and cope after the offending accident?

1 Not ~ 2 To ~ 3 Ask for help

1. Not to bathe, or go to the toilet or change clothes; not to destroy the crime spot.
2. To keep all the evidences (such as excreted toilet paper, condom, body hair, cigarette butt, the crime spot or the street name) ; Going to the hospital ER for injury diagnosis. You should remember the differentiable traits of the offender (such as body marks, identity information) .
3. Ask for Help
 - * Call 110 report hotline
 - * 112 cell phone emergency hotline
 - * 113 national protection hotline

Know-how for the Prevention of Sexual Assault

Tips

Something important needs to remind regarding general law knowledge

Based on the law , people under 16 should not have the right of sex autonomy (sex willingness). Therefore, whether they agree or not, having sex with people under 16 has offended against sex autonomy (Criminal Code)

-
- 1 NO
 - 2 To
 - 3 Ask for help

Address: No. 123, Yanping S Rd., Zhongzheng Dist., Taipei City 10042, Taiwan(R.O.C.)

Taipei City Center for Prevention of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

Address : No. 123, Yanping S Rd., Zhongzheng Dist., Taipei City 10042, Taiwan(R.O.C.)

Hot line : 02-2361-5295 ext.6226(24-hr. service)

Fax : 02-2361-5290

National protection hotline : Protection Hotline113 and Citizen Hotline 1999

There is a Fire!

Recent evidence showed that sexual offenders are no longer only suspicious-looking strangers, but the ones whom are known to the victim is growing more. To prevent sexual assault effectively, the best way is to keep eyes open in our daily life.

Everyone has the equal human rights and the same right to be respected regardless of different sexual orientations and genders.

Be careful to prevent assault events

For safety in interpersonal relationship

Some “Not” guidelines...

1. Not to date with a stranger alone or go out with someone alone ; Not to have an afterparty with someone alone . Remember to tell your family or a friend about with whom you date, where to go, and when to come back before you go out for a date.
2. Not to turn the phone off, to be aware of the reception of the phone, not to go to the place where the reception is poor.
3. Not to make date time in the early morning or in the midnight. Not to drink unidentified beverages or wine, and not to drink it after you let it out of sight.
4. Not to ride with a new friend or cyber friend as possible. Not to allow a new friend or a cyber friend to change your date location.
5. Not to ask someone unfamiliar to take care your kids or the disabled .

For safety in interpersonal relationship

Some “Yes” guidelines

1. To dress up appropriately according to with whom you date and where you go. If someone shows sexual things that offend you, you should express your uncomfortable feeling and say “no” right away, and get away if needed.
2. To date in public or familiar places, not to go to remote suburb, confined space (such as KTV), or dead corners in campus.
3. To consider the familiarity and the willing if someone whom you just known invites your younger kids (or the disabled) to out or to his (her) house.
4. If someone in your family showed uncommon physiological signs or behaviors toward a specific person, object, or situation; you should care for her(him) and help her(him) to deal with the situation.

For personal safety

1. To carry simple personal security equipments (whistle, pepper spray, mini personal alarm) with you for contingent use.
2. Not going to the dark or sparsely populated location (such as dead lane, basement, public restroom, parking lot, park, campus, pedestrian underpass) alone in the early morning or at night. Walking along the boulevard or populated street as possible.
3. Ask help for taxi-dispatch in 24-hour convenience store or call dispatch hotline (55850 for cell phone or 0800055850), police station can also help you for taxi-dispatch.
4. Ask your companion to write down the license plate number or call your family to tell the number after you take a taxi; if necessary, ask a friend or your family to wait for you at the destination.
5. If you dispatch a cab at night, you'd better call your family and tell her (him) about your location, the license plate number and the driver's name, the driving route, and the expected time of arrival in order to reassure your family.

Only Yes means Yes !

Safety for help-seeking behaviors

Receiving medical examination, alternative medicine or folk healing, be sure have the third person (family, friend, nurse, aide etc.) with you (to avoid one-to-one situation or in private occasions)