2. Ticket types
   (1)Priority Members: Residents of Taoyuan Village, Yide Village, and Fengnian Village in the Beitou District of Taipei; seniors over the age of 65; retired Taipei City Government civil servants or educational staff; and indigenous senior citizens over the age of 55 with a household registration in Taipei City.

(2)Preferred Members: Residents with residence addresses in the Beitou District of Taipei, and employees of Taipei City government agencies, including teachers, neighborhood chiefs, and volunteers.
(3)Regular Members: All other members who do not qualify for the aforementioned types.
(4)One Day Passes: Members using One Day Passes can use the gym and swimming pool for an unlimited amount of time on the day of purchase.
(5)People with a disability (and one companion if they cannot swim or use equipment safely alone) can enter the swimming pool and gym for free upon presenting valid ID. Additionally, the B1 table tennis room, badminton court, and billiards court are each free for one hour. If no one uses the court during the next time slot, the court can be used for an additional hour, with a daily limit of 2 hours for all types of courts. No discounts are offered for the basketball court, squash court, or B2 table tennis room.
(6)Swimming pool: Free for children aged 6 years and under. Children between the ages of 6 and 12 can buy tickets at a discounted price, subject to presentation of valid ID. (Pool companion ticket: NT$60/person)
(7)The basketball and badminton courts are available for rent to host other ball sports or large group gatherings and activities (with the exception of banquets, spring parties, feasts, etc.). In general, each venue will be rented out for such purposes one time per month; fees will be calculated using the peak ticket price of the applicable court plus an additional 50%. The rental time period begins from venue setup and ends after venue cleanup. Everyone must wear sneakers when entering the court, and shoes that damage the venue such as leather shoes, rubber shoes, and spiked shoes are strictly prohibited.
(8) For non-profit organizations applying for event venues, the company will provide the venue free of charge after confirming that there are available time slots.
