

Regulations for Taipei City Government's Activities in Response to Coronavirus

Disease (COVID-19) (updated on 03/27/2020)

◆ Standards for all genres of activities to be held/cancelled

Activity Genres	Standards
Activities subsidized or co-sponsored by the Taipei City Government	Recommended to follow the standards implemented by the Taipei City Government.
Outdoor activities	Activities with more than 500 people are recommended to be cancelled or postponed. If it must be held, crowded activities should be cancelled and no food stands are allowed. Venue requires circulating air.
Indoor activities (less than 100 people)	To be cancelled or postponed in principle. Validated by each own entity if it must be held, and accompanied by online live streaming.
Indoor activities (Above 100 people)	To be cancelled or postponed in principle. Validation and approval are required by the Department of Information and Tourism as well as the Department of Health if it must be held, and accompanied by online live streaming.

◆ Related regulations for holding indoor activities

Standards for Validation/Approval	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Participants should maintain a distance of 'more than 1 meter' during the whole time.</li> <li>2. Maintain the air flow and leave the windows open (non-closed space)</li> <li>3. Enforce entrance and exit control to effectively control personnel coming and going.</li> <li>4. Participants information should be obtained ahead of entry.</li> <li>5. No food stands; no eating or drinking are allowed.</li> </ol>
Participants restriction (prohibited in principal)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Chronic disease patients</li> <li>2. Pregnant women</li> <li>3. Others (validated by the organizers)</li> </ol>

Preventive measures	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Intensify the venue disinfection before and during the activity, and disinfect surfaces that people have more exposure to (for example: elevators, handles, door knobs, tables and chairs etc.) on a regular basis. (enforce more regularities if needed)</li> <li>2. Temperature checks on all participants at the entrance; alcohol or disinfectant sterilization before entering the venue; face masks to be worn at all times (exceptions for particular performances); keep logs to track.</li> <li>3. Provide alcohol or disinfectant at public areas, such as service centers, breastfeeding rooms, response centers, media centers and so on.</li> <li>4. Provide hand wash or soap in the restrooms and pantry rooms.</li> <li>5. Temperature checks on frontline staffs and performing groups before the performances; fill in health management charts to confirm their physical conditions (to be tracked); people with fever or flu symptoms should be excluded from work.</li> <li>6. Set up an epidemic prevention team onsite in order to audit the epidemic prevention measures implemented by the staff. Report immediately if any respiratory symptoms or abnormal conditions occur.</li> <li>7. Strengthen the preannouncement and communication before the activity; set up notices onsite, and improve the epidemic prevention information from the broadcast (or host).</li> <li>8. Have the contingency plan prepared, including traffic flow at the venue, temporary isolation spaces for potential cases, medical support, related contact liaison, severe special infectious pneumonia reporting system and so on.</li> </ol>
---------------------	--

Note: In compliance with the “public assembly” accordance guidelines issued by the Central Epidemic Command Center, and may adjust according to the situations.